

Mark Harrison

Board Member

Mark is a retired tax professional who, while working, leveraged a mastery over a wide range of complex issues to serve a diverse client portfolio, including Fortune 500 corporations. He was a business strategy leader with a unique ability to anticipate client needs and design innovative solutions customized to navigate the US tax code for a wide array of industries, including financial services, automotive, manufacturing, and technology. His clients included large and multinational companies such as American Honda, Wells Fargo Bank, Visa, Discover, and U.S. Bank, as well as smaller companies and individuals.

Mark has a passion for education and is a champion of talent development with experience teaching graduate-level taxation courses and designing and delivering firm training courses for professionals. Mark is also a published contributing author of a tax technical treatise on the taxation of financial institutions.

Mark enjoys spending his time with his family and friends as well as pursuing his many hobbies and interests, which include cycling, sailing, scuba diving, cooking, and reading.

Educational Background

B.S. Business Administration (Accounting & Finance) – University of California, Berkeley

M.S. Taxation – Golden Gate University

Board Memberships

Board Member – Big Brothers, Big Sisters of the East Bay (Northern California)

Board Member – YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles