

Sharon Kilmer

Board Member

Sharon Kilmer is a seasoned investment professional with deep expertise in fixed income portfolio management, investment analysis, securities trading, and portfolio hedging. She is currently a Managing Director at TPG Angelo Gordon, a $243 billion alternative asset management firm headquartered in San Francisco and New York City.

Sharon serves as a member of the Investment Committee and Head of Credit Underwriting for the firm's Net Lease Real Estate Funds, which focus on sale-leaseback financing of industrial and commercial assets leased primarily to below investment-grade tenants.

Her previous roles include serving as Chief Investment Officer for Angelo Gordon Advisors, LLC, a wealth management platform wholly owned by Angelo Gordon. There, she led a multi-manager investment program that integrated traditional long-only strategies with alternative investments.

Earlier in her career, she managed insurance and pension assets, as well as open- and closed-end mutual funds, at Pacific Investment Management Company (PIMCO) in Newport Beach, California, and Transamerica Investment Services in Los Angeles, California.
